Dear Sir or Madam,

I hope this message finds you well.

We would like to kindly follow up on our invitation to the 2026 World Maritime Day Parallel Event and Korea Maritime Week, which we sent to you on May 4th.

As this event aims to bring together ministers, international organizations, industry leaders, and maritime experts to discuss key maritime priorities and strengthen global cooperation, we sincerely hope to have the honor of welcoming Sir or Madam to the event.

Given your distinguished expertise and leadership in the maritime field, we believe that your participation would make a valuable contribution to the discussions and further enrich the outcomes of the event.

We would therefore be most grateful if you could kindly consider our invitation. Should any additional information be required to support your review, please do not hesitate to let us know.

We sincerely hope to receive your favorable consideration and look forward to the opportunity to welcome you to Busan.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Secretariat of the 2026 World Maritime Day Parallel Event and Korea Maritime Week

Subject: [Official Invitation Letter_MAIIF] 2026 World Maritime Day Parallel Event and Korea Maritime Week, Busan, Korea

Dear Sir or Madam,

On behalf of the Ministry of Oceans and Fisheries of the Republic of Korea, the Secretariat of the 2026 World Maritime Day Parallel Event and Korea Maritime Week is pleased to extend the official invitation to attend the 2026 World Maritime Day Parallel Event and Korea Maritime Week, to be held in Busan, Republic of Korea, from 26 to 30 October 2026.

The World Maritime Day Parallel Event, jointly hosted by the International Maritime Organization and the Ministry of Oceans and Fisheries of the Republic of Korea, will be held from 26 to 27 October 2026 under the theme

"From Policy to Practice: Powering Maritime Excellence."

This important international gathering will bring together high-level representatives and experts from IMO Member States, industry, academia, and relevant organizations to share insights and discuss practical approaches to strengthening maritime policy implementation.

Following the Parallel Event, Korea Maritime Week will take place from 28 to 30 October 2026, providing a valuable platform to explore key issues in the global maritime sector, including decarbonization, digitalization, and sustainable maritime cooperation.

Your participation would be greatly appreciated and would contribute meaningfully to the success of the events.

Please find attached the official invitation letter for your kind consideration.

We look forward to the honor of welcoming you to Busan in October 2026.

Sincerely,

Secretariat of the 2026 World Maritime Day Parallel Event and Korea Maritime Week
